

Antisocial Media Waltz

David Summers

C G7
I've seen all your friends now from high school

C
You showed what you bought at the store

C7 F
That time you picked apples in Fallbrook

C G7 C
Those smiley face socks that you wore.

Before I liked you on Facebook
I liked you in person much more
The things that you post, some clouds and French toast
Are rubbin' me just a bit sore

(FIRST CHORUS)

C
Well your cat is so smart

Dm
Your kids are so cute

G7
Your sandwich the finest I've

seen. Dm
Your lover's so hot, I get all that you got

G7 C
'Cuz you've got it all over my screen.

I saw what your dad did in Denver
I know everywhere that you go,
If you so much as sneeze
Or cook up some peas
You gotta let everyone know

I'm sorry that you lost your wallet
Your new tile floor sure looks nice
That cartoon you got from your sister
Was so good you posted it twice

(SECOND CHORUS)

C
Well your tree grew some fruit

Dm
Your cousin's a hoot

G7 C
You looked pretty cute at age nine
Fred's party looked fun

Dm
Nice shot of the sun

G7 C
Through a close-up of your glass of wine.

I know your political party
I know what you think about mine
From immigration to gun legislation
Your views are all plastered online

I'm not sure why they call it social
Or what makes this medium great
I'm hungry to know things about you,
But you're pilin' too much on my plate.

Now I've got a question to ask you
Not knowin' how it's gonna end
If I was to up and unfriend you,
Do you s'pose I could still be your friend?

(FIRST CHORUS)

Well your cat is so smart

Your kids are so cute

Your sandwich the finest I've seen

Your lover's so hot, I get all that you got
'Cuz you've got it all over my screen.

You've got it all over my screen.
