

Frosty the Snowman

Written by:Walter Rollins & Steve Nelson

[F] Frosty the Snowman was a [Bb] jolly, [C7] happy [F] soul,
With a [Bb] corncob pipe and a [F] button nose
And two [C7] eyes made out of [F] coal.
Frosty the Snowman is a [Bb] fairy [C7] tale they [F] say,
He was [Bb] made of snow but the [F] children know
How he [Gm] came to [C7] life one [F7] day.

[BRIDGE]

There [Bb] must have been some [Am] magic in that [Gm] Old silk [C7] hat they [F] found,
For [C] when they placed it on his head,
He [Dm] began to [G7] dance [C] around.

[F] Frosty the Snowman was [Bb] alive as [C7] he could [F] be,
And the [Bb] children say he could [F] dance and play
Just the [Gm] same as [C7] you and [F] me.

Frosty the Snowman knew the [Bb] sun was [C7] hot that [F] day,
So he said [Bb] "Let's run, we'll have [F] lots of fun
Now [C7] before I melt [F] away."
Down in the village with a [Bb] broomstick [C7] in his [F] hand,
Running [Bb] here and there all [F] around the square
Saying [Gm] "Catch me [C7] if you [F7] can!"

[BRIDGE]

He [Bb] lead them down the [Am] streets of town
Right [Gm] to a [C7] traffic [F] cop,
And he [C] only paused one moment when
He [Dm] heard them [G7] holler [C] "Stop!"

[F] Frosty the Snowman had to [Bb] hurry [C7] on his [F] way,
But he [Bb] waved goodbye , saying [F] "don't you [Dm] cry ,
[Dm] I'll be [Bb] back ag-[C]ain some [F] day!"
