

Jole Blon

Waltz. Written by: Amedée and/or Cleoma
Breaux or possibly Angelas LeJeune

Jole Blon or Jolie Blond has been often been called the unofficial Cajun national anthem

G C G
Jole Blon...delta flower
D7
You're my darling...your my G sunshine
C
You know I love you..adore you,
G
for-ever I'll love you
D7 G
And I promise I'll always be true

C G D7 G
Oh - ho - ho...ah - ha -ha.

G C G
In the evening, in the shadows,
D7 G
I'll be waiting, in Louisi-ana,
C
And when I hear your sweet voice,
G
I'll re-joice, I'll be happy,
D7 G
And saving my kisses for you.

G C G
Jole Blon, cajun angel,
D7 G
Let me tell you how I love you,
C
In the springtime you promised,
G
That we would be married,
D7
And I'm waiting, still waiting for G - G7
you.

C G D7 G
Oh - ho -ho,..ah - ha - ha.

G C G
When your hair turns to silver,
D7 G
I'll still call you, delta flower,
C
Pretty Blond I still love you,
G
I love you I promise,
D7 G G7
And I'm patiently waiting for G - G7
you.
C G D7 G
Oh - ho -ho,..ah - ha - ha
