Source: Baker Collection - This mele inoa for King David Kaläkaua (1836-1891) relates how he appealed to England and France for financial aid for Hawai`i. He was refused. The people of Hawai`i are called flowers. Caesar Kapa`akea, a great grandson of Chief Kame`eiamoku was the father of King Kaläkaua and High Chiefess, Analea Keohokalole, a counselor to King Kamehameha III, was his mother. Kaläkaua ruled from 1874-1891. The sign of the Kalakaua dynasty was the noonday sun symbolized by a flaming torch at midday Dm Na wa`i e ka pua i luna ei hei, no Kapa`akea he makua ei hei, C ea ea ea, ea ea ea Bb F Na wa`i e ka pua i luna ea, G7-C7-F no Kapa`akea he makua ea, - Em-A7-F
