

Little Shoemaker

Songwriters: Francis Lemarque, Geoffrey Parsons,
James John Phillips, Rudi Revil

In the [D] shoemaker's [G] shop
This re[D] frain would never stop
As he tapped a[A7] way
Working all the [D] day.
At his bench there was [G] he Just as [D] busy as a bee
Little time to [A7] lose
With the boots and [D] shoes.

But his heart went pop
In[G] side the little shop
When a lovely [A7] girl
Set him all a [D] whirl.
She had come to choose
Some [G] pretty dancing shoes
And he heard her [A7] say
In her charming [D] way,

[CHORUS]

Shoes to set my feet a-[G] dancing,
dancing,
[A7] Dancing, dancing all the [D]
day.
Shoes to set my feet a-[D] dancing,
[E7] dancing,
[A7] Dancing all my cares a[D]
way."

Then he tapped and he [G] stitched
For his [D] fingers were bewitched
And he sewed a [A7] dream
Into every [D] seam.
Making shoes, oh so [G] neat
Just like [D] magic on her feet
And he hoped she'd [A7] know
That he loved her [D] so.

But she danced, danced, danced
As [G] tho' she were entranced
Like a spinning [A7] top
All around the [D] shop.
On her dainty feet
She [G] whirled into the street
And he heard her [A7] say
As she danced a[D] way,
Shoes to set my feet a-[G] dancing,
dancing,
[A7] Dancing, dancing all the [D]
day.
Shoes to set my feet a-[D] dancing,
[E7] dancing,
[A7] Dancing all my cares a[D]
way."

Shoes to set my feet a-[G] dancing,
dancing,
[A7] Dancing, dancing all the [D]
day.

Shoes to set my feet a-[D] dancing,
[E7] dancing,
[A7] Dancing all my cares a[D]
way."
