

Molly Malone

(Cockles and Mussels)

Writer: Traditional - Waltz Tempo (¾)

In [G] Dublin's fair [Em] city, where the [Am] girls are so [D7] pretty,
I [G] first set my [Em] eyes on sweet [C] Molly Ma-[D7]lone
As she [G] wheeled her wheel [Em] barrow
Through [Am] streets broad and [D7] narrow
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

[CHORUS]

A[G]live, alive [Em]O! a-[Am]live, alive [D7] O!
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

She [G] was a fish-[Em]monger,
but [Am] sure 'twas no [D7] wonder
For [G] so were her [Em] father and [C] mother be-[D7]fore
They [G] each wheeled their [Em] barrow
Through [Am] streets broad and [D7] narrow
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

[CHORUS]

A-[G]live, alive [Em]O! a-[Am]live, alive [D7] O!
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

She [G] died of a [Em] fever, and [Am] no one could [D7] save her
And [G] that was the [Em] end of sweet [C] Molly Ma-[D7]lone
But her [G] ghost wheels her [Em] barrow
Through [Am] streets broad and [D7] narrow
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

[CHORUS]

A-[G]live, alive [Em] O! a-[Am]live, alive [D7] O!
Crying [G] cockles and mussels,
a-[D7]live, alive [G] O!

[REPEAT CHORUS]
