Writer: Traditional

[Em] Are you [G] going to [D] Scarborough [Em] Fair
[G] Parsley, [Em] sage, [G] rose[A]mary and [Em] thyme
Remember [G] me to one who lives [D] there
[Em] She once [D] was a true love of [Em] mine

[Em] Tell her to [G] make me a [D] cambric [Em] shirt
[G] Parsley, [Em] sage, [G] rose[A]mary and [Em] thyme
Without any [G] seams or fine needle [D] work
[Em] Then she'll [D] be a true love of [Em] mine

[Em] Tell her to [G] find me an [D] acre of [Em] land
[G] Parsley, [Em] sage, [G] rose[A]mary and [Em] thyme
Between the salt [G] water and the sea [D] strands
[Em] Then she'll [D] be a true love of [Em] mine

[Em] Tell her to [G] reap it with a [D] sickle of [Em] leather
[G] Parsley, [Em] sage, [G] rose[A]mary and [Em] thyme
And gather it [G] all in a bunch of [D] heather
[Em] Then she'll [D] be a true love of [Em] mine

[Em] Are you [G] going to [D] Scarborough [Em] Fair
[G] Parsley, [Em] sage, [G] rose[A]mary and [Em] thyme
Remember [G] me to one who lives [D] there
[Em] Then she'll [D] be a true love of [Em] mine
