

Mr. Tambourine Man

Written by: Bob Dylan

[CHORUS]

G                    A                    D                    G
Hey! Mister Tambourine Man, play a song for me.
                 D                    G                    A
I'm not sleepy and there ain't no place I'm going to.
G                    A                    D                    G
Hey! Mister Tambourine Man, play a song for me.
                 D                    G                    A                    D
In the jingle jangle morning I'll come following you.

                 G                    A                    D                    G
Though I know that evenin's empire has returned into sand.
D                    G                    D                    G
Vanished from my hand, left me blindly here to stand
but still not sleeping.
                 G                    A                    D                    G                    D                    G
My weariness amazes me, I'm branded on my feet I have no one to meet.
                 D                    G                    A
And the ancient empty street's too dead for dreaming.

[REPEAT CHORUS]

G                    A                    D                    G
Take me on a trip upon your magic swirlin' ship
                 D                    G                    D                    G
My senses have been stripped, my hands can't feel to grip,
                 D                    G                    D
my toes too numb to step, wait only for my boot heels
                 A
to be wandering
                 G                    A                    D                    G
I'm ready to go anywhere, I'm ready for to fade
                 D                    G                    D                    G
Into my own parade cast your dancing spell my way,
I promise to go under it
